What's it all about?

This diocesan summer camp is being run by Church of Ireland clergy, youth workers and volunteers for young people in primary school. This is the first year this junior weekend is being organised and offers primary school children a chance to experience two nights away at summer camp in Gurteen. All adults are Garda vetted and have undertaken the necessary safeguarding trust training. There will be plenty of sports, games, swimming and crafts during this residential weekend. Each evening we will have movies, disco's and quizzes with some time set aside for prayer and worship.

What is included?

All meals and activities are included. There is an outdoor swimming pool on site as well as a large sports hall, tennis courts, basketball courts, football pitches and pool tables. We will hold tournaments and competitions in many of these sports.

What do I need to bring?

- ✓ Clothes suitable for activities mentioned above.
- ✓ Towels and wash bag
- ✓ Sleeping bag and pillow
- ✓ Small amount of money for tuck shop.
- ✓ Torch
- ✓ White cotton t-shirt - for tie-dye craft.
- ✓ Musical Instrument - if you play.
- ✓ Sports equipment - we will have equipment on site, but you may wish to use your own.

Cost?

The weekend is €125 per person and is heavily subsidised by the diocesan youth grants.

Sleeping arrangements?

There will be separate boys' and girls' halls. Bedrooms allow for two people to share each night – please indicate on your booking form who you would like to share with. Bedding is not provided so please bring sleeping bag and pillow.
